

Charles Hayden Foundation Visit

The Charles Hayden Foundation invited Harlem Children Society to showcase our work and some of our students to their Board of Trustees in March of this year 2006.

The presentations of the students were exceptional and the board was impressed by the quality of their work.

Harlem Children Society Staff

Dr. Sat Bhattacharya, President & CEO

Presentations:

Students	Talk/Research Topic
1. Name: High School: Presently: Going to: Research Topic and Talk:	Mr. Pankaj Saha Manhattan Center for Science and Math, Harlem St. John's University University of Rochester Isolation, Detection and Characterization of Circulating Cancer Cells from Patients
2. Name: High School: Going to: Research Topic and Talk:	Ms. Eunice Asare Thurgood Marshall Academy, Harlem Sarah Lawrence College Generation of Melanoma Mouse Models
3. Name: High School: Research Topic and Talk:	Mr. Odell La Croix High School for Medical Science, Bronx Study of IGT in HIV/ AIDS Drug Users

4. Name: Mr. Alberto Del Rosario
High School: Manhattan Center for Science and Math
Going to: SUNY New Paltz
Research Topic and Talk: Cloning of Recombinant Expression Vectors that encode for Interleukins (IL-15, IL-21, & Luciferase for Tumor Immunology Studies.
5. Name: Mr. Oscar Tabora
High School: Frederick Douglas Academy, Harlem
Research Topic and Talk: Working with Liposomes to fight Cancer
6. Student: (Standby) Mr. Swapan Bhuiyan
High School: Manhattan Center for Science and Math, Harlem
Presently: St. John's University
Research Topic and Talk: Biochemical and Biological Study of Environmental Quality – Restoring the Bronx River